GREAT DAM GIVES WAY WARNING SAVES LIVES

Immense Barrier of Steel, Stone and Concrete Across Stoney River in West Virginia Refuses Longer to Sustain the Almost Incalculable Pressure.

MANY TONS OF WATER INUNDATE LARGE SECTION.

Residents of Flooded Valley Flee to the Hills and Are Saved From Drowning as Great Volume of Water Rushes Down Valley in a Torrent.

By Associated Press.

Piedmont, W. Va., January 15.—A wall of water 15 feet high is sweeping down the north branch of the Potomac river, following the bursting of the dam of the West Virginia Pulp & Paper Company at Dobbin, W. Va., shortly before noon. According to reports received, the inhabitants of the valley are fleeing to the hills and greatest anxiety is felt for the safety of the entire district. No loss of life has been reported.

An operator employed by the Western Maryland Railroad at Schell, W. Va., 15 miles below the site of the dam, sent a message to the company's office at Cumberland, Md., stating that the water was at least 20 feet high and was carrying everything before it. "I am going to duck! Good-bye!" The dam is 1075 feet at the breast, backing the water up for three and a half miles and holding three billion gallons of water. The dam is 90 feet high on the outside and 65 feet on the inside and built on a concrete foundation 60 feet deep.

Washington, D. C., January 15.—A special dispatch to the Star from Cumberland, Md., says forty feet of the West Virginia Pulp & Paper Company's dam went out today; that the remainder of the structure seems to be holding and that no loss of life has been reported. The West Potomac river at Schell is reported to have risen 15 feet and the crest of the flood was passing Piedmont shortly after noon. People were warned of the threatened break by the blowing of whistles and took to higher ground. No estimate of property damage is made.

Elkins, W. Va., January 15.—An unconfirmed report that the big dam of the West Virginia Pulp & Paper Company at Dobbin, W. Va., had broken at noon and that the water was rushing down the valley, was received here shortly before noon from Harrison, W. Va., thirty miles north of Dobbin. The water at Harrison is reported to have risen five feet.

Cumberland, Md., January 15.—Information was received at the office of the Western Maryland Railroad here at noon today that the whole of the Stoney River dam of the West Virginia Pulp & Paper Company near Dobbin, W. Va., had given way. The employees of the company's mill at Luke, W. Va., in the path of the flood, fled to the hills. So far as known there has been no loss of life.

Cumberland, Md., Jan. 15.—Great alarm has been created in the Stoney River Valley, below Dobbin, W. Va., owing to the condition of the dam of the West Virginia Pulp & Paper Company, which is leaking badly at both ends.

The West Virginia Public Service Commission has been summoned to the place and it is feared the dam may break at any time. The breast of the dam is 1075 feet long and over three billion gallons of water are held by it.

New York City, Jan. 15.—Officials of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company here gave little credence to the report that their dam near Dobbin was in danger. The company received word today from their plant at Piedmont, W. Va., fifty miles north of the dam, that rumors were current there that the dam had broken yesterday, but were not true.

On the contrary, it was said that the water in the river at that point was very low. The officials believe the rumor had grown out of the fact that on account of the low water resultant from the cold weather, two large gates in the dam had been opened to insure sufficient water for the Piedmont plant.

The country below the dam is practically uninhabited for fifty miles except a small settlement at a railroad station twenty-five miles distant.

By Associated Press.

Piedmont, W. Va., January 15.—The dam was first noticed to be cracking by a switchman last night and this morning a large portion of the structure gave way. At 11:20 today the second and larger break occurred, notwithstanding the efforts by employees to release the immense volume of water through sluiceways. The second break made big gaps on both sides of the dam. The Western Maryland bridge at Schell, W. Va., it is believed will be responsible for the debris clogging and holding the water in check for a time until the force of the flood carries it away. Piedmont, Western Port and Luke, Md., known as the tri-towns are threatened with destruction. The high water is expected to reach here late this afternoon and preparations have been made to guard against loss of life. Considerable excitement prevails here.

Cumberland, Md., January 15.—At Harrison, W. Va., 27 miles west of here, the water rose to a height of 35 feet. The torrent tore down the Western Maryland railroad bridge and washed out railroad track and highway bridges and caused general havoc. There was no report of loss of life here.

UM HUH!

By Associated Press.

Paris, France, January 15.—Adolfo De La Lama, Mexican Minister of Finance, who recently arrived in Paris today cabled his resignation to General Huerta as a protest against the action of the Provisional President in repudiating the interest payments of the external and foreign debts of Mexico.

CAMPAIGN BULLETINS

The church census at Jeffersonville, made yesterday, shows a total of 302 church members, and 176 non-church members. Of the latter number, seventy-six indicated to the census-takers a personal church preference. The meetings at Jeffersonville will begin Sunday evening.

The seven o'clock call to prayer by the combined church bells of the city is meeting with a remarkable success. Not only are the prayer services at the churches well attended, but reports are coming of prayers at this hour from all parts of town.

Reports from the meetings at White Oak give the remarkable news that a total of nearly 120 conversions have been recorded at that point to date.

The cottage prayer meetings will be resumed at nine o'clock Friday morning.

The first of the noon-day prayer meetings for business men will be held at the Palace theater at twelve o'clock Friday. The meetings will continue until 12:30.

The reports from the meetings at Bloomingburg state a remarkable interest. On Tuesday night several conversions were recorded, with an increasing attendance each evening.

The services at the A. M. E. church are drawing a large crowd. They are under the direction of Mr. Halthcock, who is delivering a series of searching messages.

Afternoon prayer services in the stores of the city will be continued several times each week. They will be supplemented by services at the billiard halls at seven o'clock on various evenings.

It is estimated that the choirs in the different churches now number more than two hundred and fifty voices, the largest record in gospel singing ever known in this city.

The services tonight in Washington churches will strike a note of peculiar appeal. In addition to the special sermons that are being planned, the musical programs will have new features.

Reports from all parts of the county state that deep interest is being manifested in each of the many churches where revivals are in progress.

BRAVE CREW IS RESCUED

By Associated Press.

St. John, N. B., Jan. 15.—Capt. Hawson and eleven men who remained on the Cobeguid last night were taken aboard the steamer Aberdeen early today and are on their way here. A wireless message to the agents of the line said that the third officer, R. F. Powell, was injured during the night and was in need of medical attention.

WAGE SCALE CONFERENCE

By Associated Press.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 15.—Representatives of coal mine owners and miners of the central competitive district, comprising the states of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, met here today to fix a date and place for the holding of the joint wage scale conference.

It is also planned to draft an agreement whereby the miners will continue work, although the wage conference may not agree on a scale by March 31st, when the present contract expires.

In connection with the miner's convention, John P. White, President of the Federation, said a meeting of the Mine Department of American Federation of Labor would be held here during the convention. C. H. Moyer, President of the Western Federation of Miners is expected to attend this meeting.

WAGE CONFERENCE ON FEBRUARY 3

By Associated Press.

Indianapolis, Ind., January 15.—February 3rd was chosen by representatives of the operators and miners of the Central Competitive district for the holding of the biennial wage scale conference. The place for holding the conference was to be chosen later.

FEDERALS MOVE

By Associated Press.

Laredo, Texas, January 15.—Opening of a Mexican Federal campaign against Matamoros is believed here to be indicated by the arrival last night of General Pena at Nuevo Laredo. He brings 100 troops including artillery from Monterey. He brought with him half a million pesos to pay troops at Nevo Laredo and two million rounds of ammunition.

THE PROGRESSIVES ROLLING ALONG

By Associated Press.

Pittsburg, Pa., January 15.—Resolutions setting forth the principles of the Washington Progressive party including the initiative to settle the liquor question and a demand for a constitutional convention; child labor and minimum wage laws were adopted here today at the party conference. James A. Garfield, of Ohio, said that in Ohio the Progressive party had refused to go back to the Republicans, saying, "There are some things worse than Democracy and one of them is the re-organization of the Republican party."

PARDON DENIED

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, January 15.—Leslie Humphries, found guilty of the murder of Samuel E. Kelly, of Beckly, W. Va., will die in the electric chair on January 20th, unless Governor Cox, who granted him a reprieve from October 23rd intervenes. The State Board of Pardons today refused to make recommendations in his case.

Thirty-three Terror Stricken Japanese Are Removed by Rescuers from the Steaming Lava Beds at the Foot of Sakura-Jima Volcano.

THEIR ESCAPE MIRACULOUS NUMBER OF DEAD UNKNOWN.

Land Formerly Beautiful Now Presents Scenes of Utter Desolation and Destruction That May be More Horrible Than First Accounts Detailed.

By Associated Press.

Kagoshima, Japan, Jan. 15.—A group of thirty-three refugees was rescued from amid a great waste of steaming lava at the foot of the volcano Sakura-Jima today, their escape being little short of miraculous. With their rescue no living being remains so far as known, on the entire island of Sakura.

The refugees were rescued by a boat's crew from the Japanese flagship. The sailors did not risk landing on the island on account of the terrific heat and noxious gases, but made systematical scrutiny along shore.

The entire island is covered with smoke, ashes and hot lava.

WOULD ALLOW BIG BUSINESS MOVING TIME

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., January 15.—New legislation prohibiting interlocking directorates will provide ample opportunity and time for readjustment of the business, officials in the confidence of President Wilson said today, forecasting the administration program on anti-trust reform. From high administration quarters came the word that the President had pointed out to the Congressional committee the necessity for allowing either one or two years for big business to conform to the new law.

CAMPAIGN MOVES FORWARD WITH INCREASING MOMENTUM

Attendance Gradually Increasing With Each Successive Service, and Workers Are Becoming More Active in Carrying Message to Others—Special Services Attract Attention—Great Growds Expected at Tonight's Services.

(By Hugh C. Weir)

Last night there was a noticeable increase in attendance and interest at the various churches where revivals are now under way. Prospects for great results in the simultaneous campaign are becoming brighter with each successive day, and those behind the movement have met with splendid encouragement.

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

"The trouble with a good many ministers is that they waste too much time polishing the Gospel. They spend so much time in building high-sounding discourses, and evolving ponderous theories that they lose all the humanness and genuineness and heart-warmth of their message," declared Rev. Henry Brandt at the Simultaneous Evangelistic service at the Baptist church last night.

"We don't have to polish up the Gospel. It speaks for itself a whole lot more effectively than wonderful rhetoric can speak for it. If we have the Holy Spirit in what we say, we don't need oratory. The Holy Spirit is more penetrating and appealing than the most extensive vocabulary."

"We have got to get this spirit if we are to have a revival, if we are going to reach men. If we have it, we need not worry about our ammunition for the fight. It will give us a battery before which nothing can stand, a battery like the needle guns of the Prussian army that rid the French fortifications, and changed the map of Europe."

A large crowd filled the Baptist church. Mr. Brandt has proven himself a forceful, sympathetic speaker, who gets down to the practical, personal things of life rather than attempting flowery discourses. His message last night on "The Power of the Living Water" was just the kind of an intimate appeal to creep under the crust of the most indifferent.

Miss Elizabeth Sheen was prevented by illness from being present to lead in the music, but it is expected that she will be able to take charge tonight.

Yesterday afternoon the first of the song and prayer services in local business houses was held at Craig Bros. Dry Goods store. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and Mr. Boblitt led in the singing, with Mr. Thomas accompanying the hymns with his saxophone. The unusual spectacle was presented of a large store suspending its activities while gospel music filled the building, and clerks and customers stood with rapt attention.

The splendid example furnished by Craig Bros. will be followed by the other leading business houses of the city.

On Friday the first of the noon day prayer and song services for business men will be held at noon at the Palace theater.

Perhaps the greatest evidence of the spirit of the campaign is found in the individual discussions through the city on the pivotal questions of religion. Last night at a prominent lunch room, a well known business man spoke up after a spirited discussion of the Gospel, with the quiet statement, "Well, men, I am not ashamed to say that I took a public stand for Christ seven years ago, and I have been a whole lot better for it."

AT THE GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

The spirit of seeking and service was emphasized by Rev. F. E. Ross at the Grace M. E. church. Under the subject, "It is Time to Seek the Lord," he said: "The best things in life come only to the earnest seeking. The real rewards are not found on the surface. The greatest treasures are gained by the hardest effort.

"Of the men who seek fortune in the business world, statistics show that over ninety per cent fail. For every man who found fortune in the Klondike, there were ten who found a grave."

"We see the explorer, Peary, struggling laboriously over the frozen wastes of the arctic, facing privations that would daunt a less determined man. His life has been devoted to but one object, the seeking of the North Pole."

"It is time to seek the Lord. There is only one quest, whose result is absolutely certain, only one quest, whose rewards are definitely promised in advance. This is the search for truth, for rest of the soul, for salvation in the Lord. This is the quest that I would emphasize tonight, the quest on which it is our earnest prayer that every resident of Fayette county shall embark before this campaign is completed."

AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

"Reasons Why Men Do Not Become Christians," was the subject of a searching sermon given by Rev. Hostetter at the Christian church last night. Under this head, Rev. Hostetter presented a number of the excuses and arguments given by non-church members for their position. He said: "Some men refuse to become Christians because they claim there are so many hypocrites in the church. Others argue that they are too busy."

"Grant that there are hypocrites in the church. No one can imagine that there will be hypocrites in Heaven. There could be no Heaven if it contained hypocrites. They will be left out. It is simply a question whether you want to spend a little time here on earth with the hypocrite, or spend eternity with him. And it is manifestly unmanly and unfair to judge a great organization by the faults of scattered individual members."

"To the man who is too busy to become a Christian I would say, are you too busy making money? What then are you going to do with your money when your time comes to die? Are you too busy with your social affairs? What will society do for you when your time comes to die? What will the dance hall do for you when your times comes to die?"

During the service, Mrs. Hostetter, and her son, Melwood, sang an effective duet, "Though Your Sins be as Scarlet." A male quartet, composed of Messrs. McCracken, of the Wilson Avenue church of Columbus; Boblitt, Hostetter and Z. E. Irvin, sang "Speed Away" with a power that added much enthusiasm to the meeting.

The church was packed with every indication that the building will soon be unable to seat the crowd.

POWERFUL SERMON BY DR. SHAW.

The third in his series of sermons to church members was preached by Dr. Shaw at the Presbyterian church last night, with the subject of "The Transfiguration." Beginning this evening, Dr. Shaw will begin his evangelistic appeal, and has announced as his theme, "Repentance."

A feature which Mr. Gage, of the Presbyterian church has been preparing for the campaign will be in evidence this evening for the first time. It is an orchestra, formed of young men. An even larger choir will also be present, and the musical program will be given prominence. After the service, Mr. Gage will serve an oyster supper to the young men of the Choral club, formed mostly of employees of the chair factory and shoe factory, who have been giving splendid service during the meetings of the week. Those members who belong to other churches and are assisting in the services at their own congregations will come down to the Presbyterian church after the evening's services in the city are over.

In his sermon last night, Dr. Shaw painted some vivid word-pictures, particularly in his description of Raphael's world-famous painting of the "Transfiguration." Dr. Shaw emphasized two features in his treatment of his subject, the suffering of the Master, and the service of His subjects, declaring that as the sacrifice and suffering of Christ were followed by the wonderful victory of the Ascension, so will the earthly burden of the cross of His followers be followed by a tremendous reward in like proportion.

The church was filled, with an audience in excess of that of Tuesday evening, with indications that the building will be crowded even more this evening.

HAD PRESENTIMENT OF A TRAGIC DEATH

Young Woman Who Had Shot Husband Bought Coffin.

Fort Worth, Tex.—A presentiment that she would soon die a violent death induced Mrs. Etta Miller of this city to select her own coffin only three days before she was shot and killed by her father-in-law, Joe Miller. When she told friends that she had called at an undertaker's and bought a coffin they jested her. She said no threats had been made against her life, but fear of being killed haunted her day and night.

Mrs. Miller a few months ago shot and killed her husband, John Miller. The latter's father brooded over his son's death, but he had made no threats of violence. Mrs. Miller owned a rooming house and was worth considerable money.

The shooting on a crowded downtown street caused a panic. Mrs. Miller and her sixteen-year-old daughter, Pauline, had been resting in a small park near the Flatiron building, and Miller lurked behind a corner, listening to their laughter. When they started to walk off he approached them hurriedly, drew his revolver and shot Mrs. Miller through the forehead. While the woman's body was on the sidewalk he fired two more shots into it. He did not speak a word.

Mrs. Miller was convicted of killing her husband and received a two-year sentence. The court, however, suspended her sentence and she was at liberty pending good behavior. She had asserted that she loved her husband and expected to live with him again if he recovered. Next day after she made this statement he filed suit for divorce, but died while the suit was pending.

The elder Miller paces his cell in the county jail and is showing signs of remorse. "I must have been crazy to do it," he says, "but how I loved that boy! He was all I had."

RIVER AND LAKE POLLUTION BAD

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 15.—Pollution of the waters of the Great Lakes and the rivers and streams on the Canadian boundary, along which live more than 6,000,000 people, was revealed today in a report to the International Joint Commission by Dr. Allen J. McLaughlin, on the Public Health service. The report showed extensive pollution in the waters adjacent to many of the large cities and declared that owing to the present position of intakes, there is not a single city on the lake which can be said to possess water that is safe without treatment.

The remedy, Dr. McLaughlin said, should be sought by the best sanitarians in the world. The commission under treaty, has no power to remedy conditions, but it will suggest the employment of world known sanitarians and authorities on public health and after investigation by these experts will recommend legislation to embody their views, to the Canadian and United States governments.

TO URGE GHOSTS TO GO.

Spiritualists Will Try to "Shoo" Vander Piles' Guests.

Passaic, N. J.—Spiritualists visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vander Pile to "shoo away" ghosts that have been haunting the Vander Piles for the last few weeks.

About two months ago the Vander Piles were awakened one night by knockings inside the walls of the house. They thought little of the matter, but when the knockings came the second night it was decided they were made by ghosts.

All sorts of plans were tried to lay the ghosts, but all to no avail. The Rev. Nicholas Boer of the Christian Reformed church sat up with them one night. The sounds came, and Mr. Boer refused to call again.

Spiritualists in Paterson read of the ghosts and offered to persuade them to go away.

DOG MOTHER'S BARK KEEPS LIONS AWAKE

Scotch Collie, However, Brings Up Husky Cubs.

Pittsburgh.—Working as a mother, nurse and governess to a pair of husky young lionesses with bad tempers, Kate, a Scotch collie, has been leading a dog's life of it for some time and is about to relinquish the "job."

Ernest Tretow, head keeper at the Highland park zoo, says that she has done her duty well and will be discharged soon. Her bark has terrified the young lionesses more than their already healthy roars impressed her. Of late she has been making so much noise that she must be taken out of the lion house. Her barks have got on the nerves of the adult lions and lionesses, and they can't get enough sleep.

The lionesses, born of General Cronje and Martha Washington, are called Emmeline and Gaby. They were taken away from the mother because of the habit captive lionesses have of destroying their young. Kate was put in as a substitute and immediately won the respect and fear of her charges.

DEAD MAN HER COMPANION.

Woman Alone With Body All Night on Drifting Launch.

Miami, Fla.—After having been adrift for twelve hours in a small launch, which she was unable to manage, Mrs. M. E. Bearce, a tourist from St. Louis, was rescued. In the boat with the woman was the dead body of her companion, George D. Smith, who in the early nineties was a restaurant keeper in Fourteenth street, New York.

Shortly after the couple started out for a boat ride the engine became stalled, and while working over it Smith dropped dead from heart disease.

Mrs. Bearce knew nothing about running the boat and drifted about in the darkness until her cries were heard by fishermen. She is in a critical condition as a result of her experience.

Be a Good Loser, Too

The percentage of men elected to public office, receiving big salaries and honorable position in return for services, neither burdensome nor disagreeable, who become disgruntled nuisances when reverses overtake them, is a remarkably large one.

Strange to record, too, the men who take their retirement to private life most ungraciously are those who have been signally fortunate in finding favor in the glance of capricious political fortune.

Men who are elevated to office by an unexpected "break" in political luck (and some men believe it is luck, not judgment or principle) are more bitter than any other class when political fortune frowns upon them.

The American people, being intensely human, do not take kindly to the men who are embittered when political reverses come and seek to vent their own disappointment, due in most cases to lack of principle, on those who are still considered worthy, politically speaking, to be chosen for public servants.

No man has a perpetual lease on public office and any man who cannot let go as graciously as he can take hold of office will fail to find favor with the people.

Men whose tenure of public office has been rendered impossible by changed conditions, men whose chance of success must be lessened in order that problems of great importance involving the public, may be solved, who deliberately turn upon the friends on whose shoulders they have been carried to success, and make common cause with former enemies, do not show the spirit of the true American.

There is no better test to which man can be subjected than the game of politics.

The trickster in the larger field of politics is soon found out by his associates—opportunity to prove worth oftentimes results in an exposure of unfitness and, when public reproof comes, it only makes more glaring the utter lack of manly principles to go about intriguing against those who have been true friends.

Americans love a winner, but above all they love and admire a good loser, and they have little patience with the man who permits his personal disappointment to govern his political conduct and shape his course

The public turns a deaf ear to the man who finds fault with others because he cannot hold office perpetually.

Any man proves by complaining constantly, when fortune's wheel turns the wrong way, that he only supported policy and party for revenue and office his words carry little weight.

The man who can only march along as an officeholder, who deserts when reduced to the ranks is not the man to whom people want to listen.

On the Farm Immigrant Is Offered Biggest Opportunity

By the Rev. Dr. JOSEPH KRAUSKOPF of the Keneseth Israel Synagogue, Philadelphia

CITIES will always be required in the economy of nations. But the CROWDING OF VAST NUMBERS OF PEOPLES INTO SMALL AREAS WAS NEVER REQUIRED. It was not asked of us to deprive people of God's sunlight and air, which is in the breath of life.

There will be a terrible reckoning for our overrated industrialism and trade when they will be asked to answer for the terrible blight they have imposed on the lives of the peoples who have WITHERED AWAY IN THE HORRIBLE DENS OF OUR CITIES. They will be asked to explain the cramped, sordid lives they have enforced on those who did their bidding. They will be required to atone for the stunted limbs, the pale cheeks, the prematurely aged and blasted lives and hopes of millions of God's creatures.

American liberty and opportunity are bought at the PRICE OF THE IMMIGRANT'S LUNGS. It is the price he must pay for his tenement and the opportunity to eke out a miserable existence.

IT IS MY BELIEF, AND IN THAT BELIEF I HAVE PERSISTED, THAT BY PREVAILING UPON SOME FAMILIES NOW DWELLING IN THESE GHETTOS TO DWELL ON THE FARMS WE MAY BE ABLE TO CREATE A LANDWARD TIDE THAT WILL BE IN TIME A MATTER OF SOME MOMENT. IF AMERICA HAS SPELLED OPPORTUNITY THE AMERICAN FARM OF TODAY IS THAT OPPORTUNITY.

Poetry For Today

LIFE WITH GOD.

Still, still with thee, when purple morning breaketh,
When the bird waketh, and the shadows flee;
Fairer than morning, lovelier than the daylight,
Dawns the sweet consciousness I am with thee.

Alone with thee, amid the mystic shadows,
The solemn hush of nature newly born;
Alone with thee, in breathless adoration,
In the calm dew and freshness of the morn.

As in the dawning o'er the waveless ocean
The image of the morning star doth rest,
So in the stillness thou beholdest only
Thine image in the waters of my breast.

Still, still with thee, as to each new-born morning
A fresh and solemn splendor still is given;
So doth this blessed consciousness awaking,
Breathe each day nearness unto thee and heaven.

When sinks the soul, subdued by toil, to slumber,
Its closing eye looks up to thee in prayer,
Sweet the repose beneath thy wings' over-shadowing,
But sweeter still to wake and find thee there.

So shall it be at last, in that bright morning,
When the soul waketh, and the shadows flee;
Oh, in that hour, fairer than daylight's dawning,
Shall rise the glorious thought, I am with thee.

—Harriet Beecher Stowe.

DEMAND MADE FOR WILL'S RETURN

Richmond, Va., Jan. 15.—State Senator R. E. Thornton of Fairfax introduced a bill directing Governor Mann to communicate with J. P. Morgan and to demand the return to Virginia of the will of Martha Washington, which was stolen from the archives of Fairfax county during the war. The bill directed that, in case of failure to secure the paper by courtesy, the governor, in the name of the commonwealth, shall institute suit against Morgan to recover the property.

SAME OLD STORY

Bryan, O., Jan. 15.—Mrs. Phil D. Christman, 32, was fatally burned in a gasoline explosion. In starting a fire in the kitchen range she used gasoline by mistake for kerosene. The explosion blew out the bottom of the can, scattering the burning fluid on her clothes.

NUMBER OF DEAD MAY NOT BE 500

Tokyo, Jan. 15.—Government officials announce that the eruption of the volcano Sakurashima, which began on Jan. 11, is abating. It is impossible yet to estimate the loss of life, to say nothing of the extent of the property damage, since the island of Sakura, which appears to have suffered heaviest, is still shut off from the outside by the continued rain of ashes from the volcano.

The city of Kagoshima, which was reported completely destroyed, fared much better than earlier dispatches indicated. The city was badly damaged by the earthquakes and by the ashes from the volcano, but the foreign office received a dispatch from Ijuin, formerly Japanese minister to China, who lives in Kagoshima, in which the loss of life is placed at only 10 persons killed. Thirty more were injured, he said. The dispatch added that the city had suffered severely in property loss.

Word that all Americans at Kagoshima and the rest of the affected territory are safe was received from Carl F. Deichman, American consul at Nagasaki, 90 miles away. Mr. Deichman's telegram read: "A private telegram states that Americans that were in Kagoshima fled to Sendai, near Kagoshima. All safe." The Americans in Kagoshima included a number of missionaries.

The officers of the warships and of troops in and near the affected district have orders to search the district, particularly the island of Sakura, at the first opportunity. Accurate estimates of the loss of life are not likely until this official search has been made. Private dispatches received here say that the first of the larger buildings of Kagoshima to be destroyed was the postoffice, which collapsed at the beginning of the series of earthquake shocks. Those in the building escaped injury.

Another Volcano Active.

Azumayama, one of the better known volcanoes of Japan, which is 100 miles to the northwest of Tokyo, is again in eruption.

The captain of a jute steamer, which arrived at Nagasaki from Kagoshima, told of the scenes he had witnessed at Sakura. The captain, who himself aided in the rescue of 300 persons from the island, told of the effects of tidal wave and earthquakes, with columns of water spouting up around the boats of the rescuers, adding more peril to their work. Buildings and the sugar cane in the fields united in one great lane of fire, and domestic animals and human beings ran together toward the beach in an effort to escape.

Late telegrams sent from the district which suffered by the volcanic eruption estimate the number of persons killed on the island of Sakura as below 500. The dispatches are still fragmentary, but it seems that the loss of life was not as heavy as first reported.

It is believed there can be nobody left alive on the island of Sakura, which is an inferno of smoke and flame. It is stated that the entire inhabitants of the three villages there perished. Many were drowned trying to swim to the mainland or rushing madly to the beach to escape the flames.

It is stated that 600 houses collapsed at Kagoshima during the earthquakes. The inhabitants were unable to keep their feet, and those who escaped from the city did so on their hands and knees.

AID IS OFFERED

Washington, Jan. 15.—An offer of aid from the American Red Cross and a message of sympathy from Secretary Bryan were sent to the Japanese government as a result of the news of the volcano disaster in south Japan.

MIDDLE MAN IS WIPED OUT

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 15.—Establishment of a land bank is an important feature of Governor Glynn's proposed agricultural credit system, the details of which were discussed at a conference between the governor and several experts on farming and farmers' needs. The prime object of the land bank is to afford a medium for the facilitation of long-term credits for farmers who seek to use borrowed funds for development of their lands. The creation of a market commission to handle the farmers' products was another detail of the proposed plan decided upon by the governor and his advisers. This commission is intended to act as the agent between the producer and the consumer and to eliminate the middleman.

SHOOTS SELF TAKES POISON

Chicago, Jan. 15.—Attorney Isaac M. Jordan, the divorced husband of Mrs. Katherin C. Jordan daughter of Former Federal Judge Grosscup, shot himself and took poison in a hotel here. He was dead when attendants found him.

Last March Mr. Jordan was divorced by his wife. Judge Grosscup testified against him before Judge W. A. Sloan at San Diego, Cal. The charge was desertion. They were members of society and had lived together 10 years.

Mr. Jordan, who formerly lived in Cincinnati, was said to have been engaged to Miss Helena Zimmerman, the $10,000,000 heiress, but later the engagement was broken and he married Miss Grosscup. In the race for the favor of Miss Zimmerman the Duke of Manchester also competed. The suicide is blamed to grief over the divorce suit.

MISUSE OF THE MAILS CHARGED

Dayton, O., Jan. 15.—Jacob C. and Walter Henne, Miami county shoe merchants, against whom indictments charging misuse of the mails were returned by the federal grand jury, were arraigned before Commissioner Howell. Each gave bond in the sum of $1,500. Similar indictments have been returned against George and William Henne, brothers of the defendants, who also reside in Miami county. The quartet are accused of obtaining fictitious credit through alleged fraudulent use of the mails.

TRIMS APPROPRIATION

Columbus, O., Jan. 15.—W. O. Heffernan, state budget commissioner, announces he has made slashes in the big general appropriation bill passed at the last legislative session for the state's need in 1914. This measure will be repealed at the coming special session and then re-enacted with the unnecessary cut out of the original appropriation. The old bill carried a total of $9,511,688. The new one will provide for $8,532,384.78. This reduction of close to a million dollars exceeds expectations.

COX DEFENDS CAUSE

Columbus, O., Jan. 15.—Governor Cox defended the administration against the charge of being "tax-spenders," and challenged those who would repeal the half-mill road levy in the same breath, at the banquet of the Interstate Stone Manufacturers' association at the Virginia hotel. The governor said the time has come when questions like road improvement must be dealt with from the state unit.

DIES IN CHAIR

Akron, O., Jan. 15.—Adam Wenhart of Talmadge fell dead while seated in dentist's chair at Cuyahoga Falls. After having a tooth extracted he fell over unconscious and expired. No anesthetic had been administered.

ALL ARE SAFE

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 15.—All hands are safe, according to information received here on the stranded steamer Cobequid. Nearly all of those aboard have been landed at Yarmouth. The steamer Westport brought 71 ashore and the others came on the steamer John L. Cann. The decks of the Cobequid are awash. If the present weather continues the Cobequid will hold together. She is heading off shore. The Trinity ledge, where she struck, is six miles off the mainland of Nova Scotia and 14 miles from the port of Yarmouth.

A moderate sea helped in the work of getting the passengers and crew from the liner. Trinity ledge is a dangerous point of the coast. The Cobequid was carried onto it by a westerly gale.

VILLA INCREASES FIGHTING FORCE

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 15.—Pancho Villa is to increase his rebel army by the addition of 10,000 men. He declares the recent capture of arms at Ojinaga, together with arms and ammunition he had previously taken from the federals, will enable him to fully arm and equip that many men.

ALL PREMIUMS AWARDED IN JEFFERSONVILLE SHOWS

F. E. Eichelberger Wins Sweepstakes in Corn Show and Outsiders Discover That They Didn't Have a Look-In With Fayette County Corn—Awards in Poultry Show.

Judge Wheeler, of the O. S. U., completed his work at the Marshall Grange corn show at Jeffersonville, Wednesday evening, and the prizes were all awarded accordingly, with outsiders finding that Fayette county corn is mighty hard to beat, and failing to carry off prizes that they were sure they could win. As one man expressed it, "they had their eye-teeth cut" when they beheld the class of corn exhibited in competition.

F. E. Eichelberger won both sweepstakes and many other prizes. H. W. Bussert was another who won a number of good prizes. Frank M. Kennedy carried off a liberal share of the prizes, while other corn growers won several in the various classes.

The result in the poultry show was also interesting, and the many fine birds have been viewed very critically by the crowds who have thronged to Jeffersonville.

Friday and Saturday are the days of the institute, and the crowds will be larger than ever.

The awards were made as follows:

CORN SHOW.

W. C. T. U. IN SESSION TODAY

National Constitutional Amendment Day Observed at County Meeting Held at Baptist Church This Afternoon—Joint Resolution Read Throughout Nation Today.

Quite a large number of W. C. T. U. members and others interested in the passing of an amendment to the National constitution calling for the prohibition of the manufacture of liquor, assembled at the First Baptist church Thursday afternoon, for the observation of the "National Constitutional Prohibition Amendment Day," which is being observed all over the nation.

At press time they were still in session, one feature of the program being the reading of the joint resolution offered by Mr. Hobson, which is given below:

JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

Introduced in the house of representatives, October 28, 1913, by Congressman Richmond P. Hobson, proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States:

Whereas exact scientific research has demonstrated that alcohol is a narcotic poison, destructive and degenerating to the human organism, and that its distribution as a beverage or contained in foods lays a staggering economic burden upon the shoulders of the people, lowers to an appalling degree their average standard of character, thereby undermining the public morals and the foundation of free institutions, inflicts disease and untimely death upon hundreds of thousands of citizens and blights with degeneracy their children unborn, threatening the future integrity and the very life of the nation; therefore, be it

Resolved by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled (two-thirds of each house concurring therein), that the following be proposed as an amendment to the constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the constitution of the United States when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states:

The sale, manufacture for sale, transportation, importation or exportation for sale of beverages or foods containing alcohol is forever prohibited in the United States and in all territory under their jurisdiction.

2. The congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

AGED WOMAN FOUND DEAD

Mrs. Mahala Walker Succumbs to Heart Trouble and Is Found by Her Son at Her Home on Maple St.—Funeral Services Saturday Afternoon.

Mrs. Mahala Wacker, aged 81 years, one of the city's well known residents, was found dead in bed about nine o'clock, Thursday morning by her son, Mr. Ira Walker, who had gone to her home on Maple street to ascertain the condition of her health, she having been suffering from a cold for several days.

When found the body was still warm, indicating that death had resulted an hour or two before. Death was due to heart trouble.

The aged woman had been residing alone, and Wednesday night her son visited her and at that time she was apparently in her usual health, with the exception of a bad cold.

The remains were taken to the home of her son, Ira, on South Fayette, and funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, followed by burial in the Washington cemetery.

ANGRIER YOU GROW SWEETER YOU BECOME

Professor Says Sour Nature Is Happy Disposition.

Cambridge, Mass.—Get angry and be sweet. This is the whole secret, and the students of the Harvard Medical school are doing their best to explain the paradox. It was explained to them by Professor W. B. Cameron here in a lecture, just how a real "sour nature" is really a sweet one and how a sweet tempered man has a sour disposition.

Professor Cameron explained it all in his lecture on "Bodily Effects of Fear and Rage," and the point of his talk was that the angrier a man gets the sweeter he really is.

According to Professor Cameron, when a man gets really angry and wants to kick things around, his stomach and intestines go on strike with his temper. There is a cessation of the flow of gastric juice and at once begins an increased flow of the secretions of the adrenal gland.

At the same time the blood becomes thicker and begins to clot, and the amount of sugar in the system is thereby increased by the general complication. This is beneficial to the man who has let his temper get the better of him, and the angrier he gets the better it is. When he gets over the spell he is in better physical shape than before the antagonistic mood came on.

Professor Cameron said that he had discovered the sweetening of humanity during anger through years of experiments and that he found also in his researches that "Fear and Rage" were just as evident and much the same in their effects upon dogs and cats as with human beings. X rays, he said, had a great deal to do with aiding him in discovering that the sweetness of anger was not a fallacy. Hence the students who declare they understood all that he lectured about

FRED BATEMAN PASSES AWAY

Former Local Baseball Star Found in an Unconscious Condition in Front of Home in Cincinnati and Quickly Expires—Post Mortem Examination Held.

Fred Bateman, aged 40 years, formerly associated with the Melvin Baseball team of this city, but for several years connected with the Cincinnati Times-Star, is dead.

He was found in an unconscious condition in front of his house on Ayer's avenue, Cincinnati, this week, and soon passed away. Bruises upon his face and body led to the belief that he had met with foul play, and a post mortem examination was made with the result that the cause of his death was found to be heart trouble.

The deceased was a well known semi-professional baseball player, whose fame was not alone confined to his work with the Melvin team in this city.

He will be buried in Cincinnati.

PRESBYTERIANS

This advertisement is printed to tell you that we now have with us and preaching nightly, Dr. Charles T. Shaw, one of the foremost Evangelistic pastors of the country.

While Dr. Shaw has been for years pastor of the big First Presbyterian church in Jamestown, New York, he does a lot of Evangelistic work each year.

He has been in several notable Evangelical campaigns, including the great "Jersey Campaign" which spread over the whole state of New Jersey. Dr. Shaw had charge of the entire Riverside District.

He has preached for us three nights and electrified his audiences by his forceful presentation of the gospel. The church is aroused.

This Campaign is to be
Short, Quick and Decisive
and will last only two weeks.

Tuesday night Dr. Shaw said: "All great evangelistic movements start from within the church."

He appeals to every Presbyterian to line up in this great Union Campaign.

Are You Lined Up?

Come out tonight and hear Dr. Shaw. Get your shoulder to the wheel, and do your share in this great work of Evangelizing Fayette County.

In Social Circles

The Ladies' Home Missionary Society of Grace M. E. church was very pleasantly entertained at their regular monthly session, Wednesday afternoon, by their president, Mrs. W. E. Ireland.

Quite a large attendance was present and much enjoyed a very fine paper by Mrs. John Durant on the topic, "Our Emigrants."

Mrs. Ed Pine gave a report on the Mite boxes and an interesting letter from the 14-year-old girl of Olive Hill, Ky., for whom the society has taken a scholarship, had been received and was read at this meeting.

During the delightful social hour which followed, a victrola program was enjoyed.

Among the hostesses assisting Mrs. Ireland were Mesdames S. E. Parrett, J. W. Townsley, Sollars and Miss Josie Gossard.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Miss Lydia Rooks and Mrs. DeSoto Cochran left Wednesday evening for a visit with relatives and friends in London.

Mr. DeSoto Cochran is attending the State Cannery Convention in Toledo.

Miss Grace Pavey arrived from Columbus Wednesday evening to be the guest of Mrs. Robt. Howat.

Mrs. James J. Hobbins and son Paul, formerly of Dayton, were guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Baughn, enroute to Grand Rapids, Mich., where they will make their future home.

Mr. Thos. Frayne, Miss Kate Frayne and nephew, Will Frayne, went to Xenia Wednesday to be the guests of friends and attend the dedication of the new Parochial School Building and banquet Wednesday night. Hon. T. S. Hogan was one of the speakers at the dedication.

Mr. George Wilson has returned from a two weeks' visit with his grandmother, Mrs. Alice Wilson, in Ross County.

Mrs. Martin Junk of Austin is the guest of Mr. E. A. McCoy and family.

Mr. Tom Gilliland of Circleville and Mr. N. J. Kuntz of Middletown were business visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. John Ray and children arrived from Mt. Sterling, Wednesday afternoon to visit her sister, Mrs. James Flynn and to have her little daughter, Mary, christened at St. Colman's church, Sunday morning. Mr. Ray will join his family Saturday.

Mr. Charles Gossard is a business visitor in Cincinnati.

Miss Ethel Swinehart, of Humboldt, Ill., who is visiting relatives in Bloomingburg, spent the past two days the guest of Mrs. Chas. Allemang on Leesburg avenue.

Messrs. Elden Evans and Herbert Pierce are business visitors in Columbus today.

Mr. Frank Bending is spending the day in Circleville.

Mrs. Will Stinson and Mrs. George Allen, of Chicago, will arrive Friday morning for a visit with Mrs. F. L. Stutson and Mrs. Bertha Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lowe, of Greenfield, are guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. A. M. Bush.

Mrs. Walter Girard left Wednesday for a week's visit with friends in Newark and Columbus.

Dr. W. H. Gribble is attending the Veterinary convention at Columbus.

Friends will gladly learn that Mr. W. M. Mitchem, who underwent an operation at the Fayette hospital Wednesday, is much improved today.

Mrs. Frank E. Dixon and Miss Tillie Hyer are spending the day in Sabina, guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Hyer.

Mr. Milton Hyer is visiting his brother, Mr. Pleasant Hyer at Selden.

TRAIN DELAYED BY BURNING BRIDGE

West bound passenger train No. 107, due at 6:12 p. m., was delayed nearly thirty minutes at Rattlesnake bridge Wednesday evening, where the timbers of the bridge had caught fire from an engine which had passed over the bridge a short time before.

The train crew used buckets and soon had the blaze extinguished, after which the train proceeded on its journey.

Very little damage was done to the bridge timbers, but a little delay in extinguishing the fire would have resulted in the bridge being weakened to such an extent that repairs would have been necessary before trains could have passed over in safety.

WORDS OF PRAISE FOR ASSESSOR DUNN

Mr. John C. Dodd, superintendent of District Assessors, Southern Ohio Division, was in this city Thursday morning on business connected with his office, calling upon District Assessor J. C. Dunn, whom he warmly complimented for having the affairs of his office in such splendid condition.

Mr. Dodd stated that Mr. Dunn has his work further advanced than any district assessor whom he had visited in his rounds over Southern Ohio. After a short stay in Mr. Dunn's office he returned to Columbus.

Mr. Dodd is a former auditor of Pickaway county, and member of the Democrat State Central committee.

REHWINKLE SOCIETY MEETS HERE TODAY

A meeting of the Rehwinkle Dental Society was held at the Memorial hall in this city Thursday, with delegates from Circleville, Chillicothe and Greenfield in attendance.

MAYOR'S OFFICE IS MOVED TODAY

The mayor's office is now located over Cockerill's store, where carpenters and decorators are making changes and shaping the rooms into ideal offices and council chambers.

A "fence" is being constructed across the room to form an enclosure for the mayor's office and council chambers, and the furniture has been transferred from the McLellan building. The big safe was moved Thursday afternoon by Harve Thompson.

Mayor Coffey's desk is now located by the middle window of the new offices, so that His Honor faces toward the court room or council chamber.

It will be several days before the rooms are newly decorated and given the final touch by the workmen, but in the meanwhile Mayor Coffey will be on hands in the office.

He has not yet purchased a new desk, but will probably do so within the next few days.

XENIA Y. M. C. A. OPENS IMMEDIATELY

Finding that the Y. M. C. A. was a big factor for the uplift of the community, Xenians have come to the relief of the institution with a fund that will result in the immediate reopening of the institution.

It was closed when funds for maintaining it were not obtainable, but as soon as it was closed the citizens raised more than $1000 to reopen it.

SCARLET FEVER AT BOWERSVILLE

A number of cases of scarlet fever are reported in Bowersville, and if the disease continues to spread the public schools and other public gathering places will be closed, according to reports from that place.

A quarantine has been established but further spread of the epidemic is expected as a result of exposure before the quarantine was established.

POLICEWOMAN HAS STRONG RIGHT ARM

Drags Prisoner From Car and Holds Him For Patrol.

Chicago.—Some of Chicago's newly appointed policewomen believe that duty has been fully performed when they have detected a lawbreaker and summoned one of the male members of the force to make the actual arrest.

But not so with Mrs. Mary Boyd. That militant official demonstrated that a policewoman can do other work than counsel mothers of wayward girls and trap mashers.

She backed up her police star with a muscular right arm, yanked a man who tried to resist arrest off a street car and backed him up against a post while she summoned a patrol wagon.

Mrs. Boyd was on a car at North Clark street and West North avenue. Tossel Wendt, a janitor at 1545 Wells street, was arguing with the conductor about a transfer and using more or less vigorous language. Finally the two began to fight. Wendt was getting the better of the conductor when Mrs. Boyd, presenting her star, told him he was under arrest.

He replied with an oath and tried to slap her face, she told the sergeant afterwards. Mrs. Boyd hadn't pulled gasping bathers out of the lake at the Fourteenth street beach all summer without developing a muscle. She rode to the station with her prisoner and preferred a charge of disorderly conduct.

HOG KILLS A HORSE.

Is Attacking a Mule When Subdued by Men With Clubs.

Wilson, La.—A large hog belonging to J. S. Smith ran amuck here and caused great excitement by attacking and killing a valuable horse and nearly putting to death a mule.

The hog is two years old and is noted for its vicious temper. It got out of the lot where it was kept and ran through the streets.

The horse, belonging to J. S. Singletary, was tied in front of a store when the hog, whose tusks are long and sharp, attacked and lacerated it so that it died soon after.

The vicious porker then attacked a mule standing near, but a crowd, with ropes and clubs, finally overpowered the animal.

He Proposes by Wireless.
New York.—Mrs. Francis D. Stephenson, widow of a naval architect of Leith, arrived from Glasgow by the Anchor line Caledonia with a sheaf of wireless messages she received from an old lover, Frank McIntyre. One of the messages was a proposal of marriage, and the widow, who is young and handsome, says she will consider it while on her way to her brother, head of the Superior Shipbuilding company of Superior, Wis.

NOW AN ELECTRIC CHICKEN.

Birds Lose Nervousness and Thrive in Marvelous Manner.

London.—An electric chicken is the latest idea in poultry farming, according to Thorne Baker. When the chickens are electrically treated they lose their nervousness and seem to thrive in a marvelous manner.

Mr. Baker came to the conclusion that the most profitable application of electricity to the farm was in poultry rearing. Mortality was practically nonexistent where suitable electrification was used.

The vitality of the chickens treated was remarkable. Instead of running away when a finger was put to the netting they would rush up and peck it vigorously. They were so highly charged with electricity that quite a distinct shock was felt in the fingers on touching them, although the birds were supremely unconscious of anything, and the sparks which flew from their beaks on pecking one's finger did not appear to be felt in the least by them.

What a poor opinion the good Lord would have of himself if he answered all of the fool prayers that are sent up to headquarters!

HOLMES CLOSES OUT BUSINESS

FARMERS DEMAND LIVESTOCK SHOW

Want Portion of Appropriation For Panama Exposition.

CONGRESS HEARS ADDRESSES

Senators Pomerene of Ohio and Kenyon of Iowa, Governor Cox and Others Select Live Topics For Themes of Their Talks to Ohio Agriculturists—Campaign Against Hog Cholera in United States.

Columbus, O., Jan. 15.—Sentiment was unanimous among those attending the agricultural congress that a goodly portion of the appropriation for the Panama-Pacific exposition should go to encourage a live stock exhibit from Ohio. When a delegation called on Governor Cox to get his support for the project, he said his heart was with them.

C. G. Williams of the agricultural commission told the congress how proper conservation of manure would save the state $7,800,000, and with intelligent addition of phosphorus would increase the value of farm lands $15,500,000. He deplored the energy with which "ne'er-do-wells" were injecting themselves into agricultural extension service and added it would be unwise to let scientific experiment work suffer to increase extension work.

The object of the new stallion inspection law is to prevent deception in breeding horses, said Dr. Paul Fischer, state veterinarian. Telling of the work of his department combating hog cholera, Dr. Fischer asserted 10 per cent of the 60,000,000 hogs in the United States die each year of cholera.

John C. Speaks, state fish and game commissioner, told the farmers he wanted laws passed that would give him power to insist that every hunter must make arrangements with farmers before going on their land. "They have no right to carry on their sport otherwise," he said.

Prediction that three-fourths of dangerous wastes in the streams of the state will be eliminated in the next five years was made by Dr. E. P. McCampbell, secretary of the state board of health. Cities are sending their sewage and trade wastes to contaminate country streams, the latter, especially, destroying fish, he declared.

OUTLINE THE EUGENICS PLAN

By Associated Press. Battle Creek, Mich., Jan. 14.—"Eugenics does not eliminate romance. We Eugenists believe romance should be retained," said Prof. Roswell Hill Johnson, of the University of Pittsburgh, addressing the National Conference on Race Betterment here today.

"Through the past," said Prof. Johnson, "romance has proved a good thing. In fact, we believe that it has been a powerful factor in the building up of the most valuable human traits in man's evolution."

"Most people believe we are attempting to produce the perfect physical baby. Physical perfection has a certain importance, of course. But physically perfect babies may be found frequently with inferior minds. Eugenics seeks the improvement in racial qualities both mental and physical in future generations of men. By racial, we mean inheritable qualities."

"The superior stock we have is marrying at an alarmingly low rate. In order to advance this rate, which must be done, it is necessary to promote the following agencies:

Let young persons of both sexes be educated together, as they now are in many institutions.

"Let parents interest themselves in furthering the acquaintance of eligible friends of opposite sex, though without throwing the young people together too obviously and thus nullifying the advantage."

"Let the young people be impressed with the thought that marriage is their ideal and normal goal of life and let all cynical and pessimistic views of marriage be opposed."

"Above all things, let young people have the widest range of acquaintance possible."

"Teach the young man that mere physical beauty, except insofar as it indicates physical well-being, trivial mental qualities such as vivacity and a forced and feeble attempt at wit, and devotion to stylish dressing are very subordinate."

"Let the young people see that they are marrying for a long period, that in such circumstances flashy and assumed characteristics are negligible; that they must watch against too great a play of mere beauty and vivacity upon the emotion in opposition to more worthy characteristics, for there is a very slight chance for reason after love actually exists."

TRAINED TO STEAL

Cleveland, O., Jan. 15.—Mrs. Elizabeth Lindsey, accused of having trained her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Helen Schwartz, to be a shoplifter, was sent to the workhouse to serve a sentence of 30 days and work out a fine of $200 and costs. Mrs. Schwartz, 28, arrested at the same time, received a similar sentence.

MAY QUARANTINE TOLEDO

Landis was authorized to inquire of the state health board what steps are being taken to protect Cincinnati and other cities against the Toledo epidemic.

ATTACKS COX

Washington, Jan. 15.—Congressman J. J. Whitacre of Canton issued a statement attacking Governor Cox. Mr. Whitacre did not quite commit himself as candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, but he declared that if he became a candidate the fight would be a "vicious" one. He accused Cox of building up a political machine to perpetuate himself.

AFFINITY DEAD

New York, Jan. 15.—The sudden death of Mrs. Carrie Rand Herron in Florence, Italy, ended an "affinity" story which was the talk of this country more than a decade ago. Because he put away his first wife, persuaded her to divorce him and then married a young woman in an unconventional way, Professor George D. Herron was deposed from a college professorship and the Congressional ministry, shunned by his friends, furiously attacked, kept off the lecture platform and finally driven to seek a home for himself and his new family in Italy. There they stayed, though the hard feeling abated to such an extent that when the Herrons visited Metuchen, N. J., last year, they were received with open arms.

SIMPLIFIES NAVIGATION.

U. S. Naval Observatory Issues Condensed Computations.

Washington.—A contribution to safety at sea has been made by the United States naval observatory in the form of a publication which greatly simplifies and facilitates computations incident to the navigator's work.

Elaborate interpolations are done away with and all information condensed and made readily accessible. The publication contains only thirty-seven pages and a star chart, yet contains all the information ordinarily required by navigators in practical everyday work.

At present it will be issued as a supplement, but later will be included in the Nautical Almanac itself.

ADMISSION, ONE EGG.

The owners of moving-picture theaters in this city have scaled the dizzy heights of opulence and are eating eggs for breakfast. In order to provide themselves with the scarce and much-desired albuminous globules a new set of prices have been arranged at the "movie" headquarters. One egg admits a minor and two eggs an adult. Strangely enough, the antinoise crusade is at its height also, and it is presumed that within a few days spectators will cease clapping hands and will express their views of the performance in the quality of the egg they bring. Good show—good egg, &c.

It has been noticed that when two prospective spectators at a "movie" bump into each other on the way in it seriously interferes with their evening's amusement. Clothing merchants are in favor of the innovation—Memphis Cor. New York Herald.

SAYS HE CAN CURE LOVE BY NEW SERUM

London Doctor Says It Is Worse Than Most of the Vices.

London.—Love, passionate consuming love, which tortures and disables its victims, is curable by segregation and a new serum. This is the discovery of Dr. Maurice de Fleury, the famous "brainstorm" specialist.

Dr. de Fleury declares that to be in love, whether passionately or platonically, is a form of mental poisoning comparable to physical intoxication. By means of delicate electrical instruments, which "record every infinitesimal movement of the nervous system," Dr. de Fleury said, he has obtained charts of the condition of sufferers from this "passional intoxication" and found how to treat it.

He puts love in the fifth category of enslaving poisons, which he arranges according to severity as follows:

First, alcohol; second, opium and hashish; third, morphine, cocaine and ether; fourth, tobacco; fifth, love.

In the course of his experiments Dr. de Fleury traced the curve of love fever as clearly as that of typhoid may be traced and charted in its phases. He prescribes graduated isolation and a wonderful serum, which he does not describe.

He tells of one typical case of a bad man who wished to be cured, but resisted treatment, just as the typical morphinomaniac does. He wept and implored and reproached the physician, who was convinced that the man would commit suicide if the treatment were abandoned. He dosed his patient with intermittent separations from his lady love, increasing the intervals of segregation as the man grew stronger. After five weeks the man became calm, and at the end of two months he was completely cured.

WILL MAKE IT PARTY ACT

Washington, Jan. 15.—A practical agreement was reached by President Wilson and Democratic leaders of the judiciary committee of the senate and house as to the anti-trust legislation to be enacted at the present session of congress. The legislation will be presented in the form of an administration measure, as was the currency revision bills. The anti-trust bill first will be introduced in the house with the president's approval and every effort will be made to press it through to enactment in a comparatively short time. Two reasons actuate the president in desiring to procure the enactment of the measure with all practicable haste. The one is that the least unsettling element in the business situation, as far as congress is concerned, may be removed; the other reason is that congress may adjourn early enough to allow the Democratic congressional candidates an opportunity to make thorough canvasses of their districts. The president disclosed to the leaders the contents of his message to be delivered to congress next week, and then asked their views on the specific provisions which should be drawn to embody the recommendations which will be embodied in the message. These are the four essential provisions which the administration bill will carry: A prohibition of interlocking directorates of corporations among which a community of interests obtain; a provision to facilitate the location of and punishment for individual responsibility for the creation of monopolies; a provision to clarify and extend the section of the statutes which defines monopolies; a provision to create a trade commission as an auxiliary body to the department of justice for gathering information upon trade operations with respect to the anti-trust law and for observing if dissolution decrees of the courts are carried out.

SOME DON'TS For Stomach and Liver Sufferers

Don't take medicine for your Stomach ailments morning, noon and night, as usually such medicines only give temporary relief and simply digest the food that happens to be in the stomach. Don't permit a surgical operation. There is always danger in operations, and in many cases of Stomach, Liver and Intestinal Ailments the knife can be avoided if the right remedy is taken in time. Don't go around with a foul smelling breath caused by indigestion of Stomach and Liver, to the discomfort of those you come in contact with. If you are a Stomach Sufferer don't think you cannot be helped, probably worse cases than yours have been restored by May's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. Most stomach ailments are mainly caused by a catarrhal condition. May's Wonderful Stomach Remedy not only removes the catarrhal mucus, but also the chronic inflammation and assists in rendering the entire alimentary and intestinal tract antiseptic, and this is the secret of its marvellous success. Don't suffer constant pain and agony and allow your stomach ailments to physically undermine your health. No matter how severe your case may be or how long you have suffered—One dose of May's Wonderful Stomach Remedy should convince you that you can be restored to health again. May's Wonderful Stomach Remedy has been taken and is highly recommended by Court, Educators, Lawyers, Merchants, Bankers, Priests, Ministers, Nurses, Manufacturers, Farmers, Ministers, Farmers and people in all walks of life. # HIS FAITH IN THE NEW CURRENCY LAW

Frank Johnson Expresses Belief That New Law Will Work Wonders In Financial World—Gives Brief History of Previous Acts, and Thinks New Act is Much The Best Law of its Character That Has Ever Been Enacted.

Expressing his views on the New Currency Law, Mr. Frank Johnson, of the Peoples and Drivers Bank, says: "During the Civil War, Honorable Salmon P. Chase, of Ohio, fathered and directly influenced the National Bank Act, which took the place of the State and wild cat banks of those days, and enabled our Government to finance the enormous expenses, often amounting to more than one million dollars per day, incurred by the war. "It was many years before the country realized the value of the National Act to the finances of the country. "Attention was forcibly drawn to the act by a provision which taxed State Banks of issue, ten per cent upon the amount of their outstanding circulation. This charge proved to be prohibitive, so that State Bank money circulation was immediately called in and redeemed. "The Federal Reserve Act is believed to be as great an advance in finances as is at present conceivable, and like the National Bank Act, is somewhat mandatory. "Every National Bank is required and every eligible bank in the United States is authorized to accept the terms and provisions of the act. "The capital stock in the Federal Reserve Banks is made up by subscription to the stock by the National Banks, in the proportion of six per cent of the capital stock and surplus of the National Banks of the Reserve District—Second, the public may subscribe; Third, the United States Treasury will provide the balance of the money necessary to complete the capitalization for the Reserve Bank in each and every district. $4,000,000 is the minimum amount for any Reserve Bank capitalization. "These banks have a franchise running twenty years, but may be dissolved by Congress or violation of law. "They shall have power to issue circulating (currency) notes, without limit as to capital stock. The amount of the circulating notes that a National Bank may issue is limited as to capital. "It shall have power to extend to each member bank such discounts, advancements and accommodations as may be safely made. "The Federal Reserve Board of Directors are empowered to grant by special permit to National Banks, (when not contrary to the law of the state in which the National Bank is located) the right to act as trustee, executor, administrator, etc., etc., under such rules as said board may order. "Under the present National Bank Act, farm loans are prohibited. The Reserve Act permits farm loans, within the district of the member bank. "A Reserve Bank in the city of New York with a capital of one hundred millions would not be too large, but advantageous to this country, since its acknowledgement by other countries as a world power. "The next census will give to New York City a population greater than London. "This country should be proud of New York City and be enthusiastically willing to make it the seat of a financial world power. "Among the largest banks in this country are the National City Bank, capital and surplus $55,000,000; deposits $225,000,000. National Bank of Commerce, capital and surplus $51,000,000; deposits $131,000,000. The Chase National Bank, capital and surplus $15,000,000; deposits, $126,000,000; all of New York City. The daily bank earnings in New York City average more than one half of all of the banks in the United States. Hence, it should be put upon a financial pedestal such as will command the financial respect and confidence of the entire world. "The Continental and Commercial National Bank of Chicago, and its allied institutions have a combined capital of $26,500,000 and surplus of $12,880,000 and deposits of $234,000,000. "In London, The London City Midland Bank has a subscribed capital of $104,000,000; deposits of $464,000,000. The Lloyds Bank has a subscribed capital of $131,000,000; deposits of $449,000,000 and carry

LITTLE STORIES ABOUT OHIO

BY CHARLES E. CHIDESTER

OHIO—HOME OF FATHER OF PENMANSHIP
Ohio is the home of the father of penmanship. Hardly a schoolboy of the past half century lives that does not carry with him a distinct mental picture of the "Honesty is the best policy," epigram in flowing script at the top of his copy-book page. The creator of this style was Platt R. Spencer, who at the age of ten years, made Geneva, Ohio, his home. So noted a teacher of penmanship did he become that President Garfield's notice was attracted and he declared him to be the founder of penmanship in the schools of the United States. Penmanship, up to the time Spencer began teaching it, was a side issue in the schools of the country. After he had analyzed, simplified and arranged systematically English script, it was as much a part of the curriculum as arithmetic. Spencer, early in life, conceived the idea of perfecting penmanship, but his struggles to attain his ends were severe. Up to the time he was eight years of age, he wrote, he had never owned a piece of white paper. Coming into possession of a cent, at that time, he sent, with a lumberman to Catskill, 20 miles away for a sheet. The lumberman returned late at night and the excited young Spencer clambered out of his bed in the rough log cabin and by the light of the log fire vainly sought to inscribe the alphabet until both sides of the paper were filled with unrecognizable lines and figures. Disappointed the lad returned to bed to be haunted by the dreams of failure. At the age of 12 years, Spencer was teaching penmanship in the Conneaut schools and walked barefooted 20 miles over frozen ground to secure an arithmetic with which to pursue his studies. Spencer for 12 years was treasurer of Ashtabula county where his copy-books were sold by the millions for use in practically every school in the United States. He died realizing his aim and knowing that he had done more to improve handwriting in the country than any other man.

GREAT PROGRAM FOR CHAUTAUQUA
Musical Artists, Orators and Entertainers on List.
BEST TALENT WORLD AFFORDS
Messrs. Coit & Alber Have Spared Neither Pains Nor Expense in Providing Rare Treat For Patrons of Local Chautauqua the Coming Season—Old and New Faces Will Appear This Year.
It is too early to make definite announcement of the program for Chautauqua Week. Such announcement will be made in the early summer, but we are advised of some of the good things that will appear on our program. The Coit-Alber Chautauqua Company will furnish over 50 communities with their programs for next summer, and great care has been taken to make each program a strong one. Good Music Chosen. There will be a great variety of good music—a new attraction each day. One of the leading musical attractions will be brought from Italy—Quintano's Royal Italian Band. This organization has made several tours in this country, having played at Madison Square Garden, New York City; New Grand Central Palace, New York City; Bay Shore Park, Baltimore, and many others. The Beulah Buck Concert Company will appear on one day, giving their choicest music. This company has been for three years regarded as the best organization of women artists in the Lyceum. The Pilgrim Girls' Orchestra from Boston, the Stratford Male Quartet, the Southern Jubilee Singers and Players, an octette of the best negro singers in America are other musical attractions. J. H. Balmer, F.R.G.S., has been engaged to bring his famous Kaffir Boy Choir to this country for the Coit-Alber Chautauquas. They come direct from London, England, where they are now filling a 100-night engagement. Then Dr. A. J. Harpin, one of New England's greatest basses, will delight music lovers. Taken all in all, the music Chautauqua Week will surpass anything ever given here. Entertainments and Lectures. The entertainment and lecture features are equally strong, though all the speakers have not yet been engaged. Among those definitely arranged for may be mentioned Sylvester A. Long, one of America's most popular lecturers; Glenn Frank of Northwestern University, Roland A. Nichols, the discoverer of Harold Bell Wright; Lincoln Whit, Arctic explorer; Sidney Landon, noted character artist; Totten, famous magician, and his company of assistants. Several lecturers of national fame will be secured. Messrs. Coit & Alber have interviewed scores, from Secretary of State Bryan to ones of lesser fame. The people of this community and surrounding country will have the time of their lives enjoying such a program extending over an entire week. In proportion to its weight California redwood is the strongest wood so far tested at the United States forest products laboratory. This strength is due to its long fibers. A man with nothing else to do has figured that the Grand Canyon of Colorado is equal to 7,304 Panama Canals. Well, what on earth does that prove? It is said that the recent rains and floods in Texas will result in good crops. "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good."

CHAUTAUQUAS ARE ENJOYING BIG BOOM

Demand for High-Class Entertainment Never Greater.

More Than Two Thousand Chautauquas Will Be Held Next Summer. Hundreds of Lecturers, Musicians and Entertainers Will Appear on the Programs.

The rapid spread and growth of the Chautauquas is one of the wonders of America. In 1873 the first Chautauqua was started on Lake Chautauqua in western New York, from which it takes its unusual name, Bishop John H. Vincent and Lewis Miller being its founders. The idea spread rapidly, especially in the West, but only in recent years have Chautauquas multiplied rapidly in the East. Now the whole country from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Lakes to the Gulf, is covered, and next summer more than 2,000 assemblies will be held. At these 2,000 assemblies more than 32,000 programs of music, entertainment and lectures will be given, and the audiences will aggregate fully 32,000,000 people; not that many different people, for each attends an average of eight times during the summer. It was to be expected that our city would join the progressive movement in educational entertainment, and for one week next summer, exact dates to be announced later, a Coit-Alber Chautauqua will hold forth. A varied and high-class program is promised by the management—at least two complete programs to be given each day. Messrs. Coit & Alber are now arranging the details of this big program. Recently they spent several weeks in Boston, New York, Washington and Philadelphia, hearing talent and interviewing noted men who lecture. No pains will be spared to make our program one of the greatest and best in America.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. ## Easy Lessons in Cooking and Baking

By EMILY RIESENBERG

DATE BLOCKS.

Ingredients.
One cupful of granulated sugar.
Five large eggs.
Two and one-half cupfuls of sifted pastry flour.
Two teaspoonfuls of baking powder.
One pound of dates.
One and one-half cupfuls of chopped walnuts.

Method.
Stone the dates, then cut into small pieces, using a pair of scissors dipped in flour to cut them. Run nuts through food chopper, then mix baking powder, nuts and dates with the flour, rubbing it together well to separate the dates. Beat yolks and sugar until light, whip the whites stiff, then beat flour and whites, alternating, into creamed mass, spread on waxed tins about one-half inch deep, bake in moderate heat. Slow baking gives it a dark, rich color. When done cut into blocks about two inches square and sift confectioners' sugar over.

WALNUT BARS.

Ingredients.
One-half cupful of butter or best butterine.
One cupful of sifted powdered sugar.
Four eggs.
Two cupfuls of sifted pastry flour.
One teaspoonful of baking powder.
One teaspoonful of vanilla or lemon flavoring.

Method.
Beat butter and sugar, adding the well-beaten yolks, then cream until very light, add baking powder to flour and sift twice, whip whites until stiff, add flavoring and then beat the flour and eggs to creamed mass, beat smooth and spread in waxed tins about one-half inch thick. Then strew on the following: One-half cupful of chopped walnuts; four tablespoonfuls of sugar. Bake in moderate heat until a golden color. When cold cut from tin in strips one by three inches. When serving confectioners' sugar can be sifted over.

PRAYER FOR AGED BY MRS. MORGAN

Asks That Fear of Death Be Taken Away.

PEACE FOR ELDERLY PEOPLE

New York Church Adopts Prayer, and It Is Published in Annual Calendar. Notable Woman Is Much Impressed With Beauties of Old Age—Asks That Undue Love of Life Be Taken Away.

New York.—Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, widow of the financier, is so impressed with the beauty of old age and the need of showing special favor to those of advanced years that she has sent to the Rev. Karl Relland, rector of St. George's Episcopal church, a special prayer for those who have passed, reached or nearly reached the allotted span of life. It is a prayer of the Episcopal communion, although not in the Book of Common Prayer.

Mr. Relland was so impressed with Mrs. Morgan's letter and the prayer itself that he printed it in St. George's Calendar, with this note:

"Through the kindness of Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan a copy of the following prayer has been received, and we are very glad of the opportunity to print it. It is a prayer especially for those advanced in years."

MRS. J. P. MORGAN.

The prayer occasioned considerable comment, and many parishioners expressed a resolve to repeat it daily.

The prayer is as follows:

O God, our Heavenly Father, whose gift is length of days, help us to make the noblest use of mind and body in our advancing years. According to our strength apportion thou our work. As thou hast pardoned our transgressions, lift the in-gatherings of our memory, that evil may grow dim and good may shine forth clearly. We bless thee for thy gifts and especially for thy presence and the love of friends in heaven and on earth.

Grant us new ties of friendship, new opportunities of service, joy in the growth and happiness of children, sympathy with those who bear the burdens of the world, clear thought and quiet faith. Teach us to hear infirmities with cheerful patience.

Keep us from narrow pride in outgrown ways, blind eyes that will not see the good of change, impatient judgments of the methods and experiments of others. Let thy peace rule our spirits through all the trial of our waning powers. Take from us all fear of death and all despair of undue love of life, that with glad hearts at rest in thee we may await thy will concerning us, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

J. P. Morgan accompanies his mother to the services and sits in the seat his father occupied for half a century.

"PET" WILDCAT ESCAPES.

Kills Two Tamed Ones Right Off Before It Is Shot.

White Pigeon, Mich.—Jacob Stickle's "pet" wildcat is dead, much to the sorrow of Stickle, but to the joy of his neighbors. Before the cat died or, rather, was killed, considerable excitement prevailed, and not a few of the residents locked themselves in their homes to escape the fury of the animal.

The trouble started when Stickle's "pet" escaped from its cage. The first thing the animal did on getting free was to quickly put to death two cats in the neighborhood. The shrieks of the tame cats as they were attacked by the wildcat struck terror in the hearts of the many women and children and brought out the men of the neighborhood with guns and other weapons, and the hunt for the animal began.

After some hours it was located under the barn. Efforts were made to drive it back to its cage without success. Finally the animal was shot by Horace Reynolds.

BOYS CLUB TEACHER.

Principal of Tennessee School Rescued by Women.

Memphis, Tenn.—Five young men, students of the Victory Consolidated school, are under arrest on the charge of having assaulted their teacher, Professor Willis Mills, principal of the school, with clubs.

Professor Mills sustained a fractured arm and other injuries. During the encounter Misses Blocker and Cranford, teachers at the school, bravely came to the assistance of Professor Mills and defended him as best they could. The young women hurled themselves in front of their principal and prevented to some extent the further use of the clubs.

After Professor Mills had been felled Misses Blocker and Cranford carried him safely inside the school building, locking the doors on the attacking party. They summoned help by telephone, and the trustees and several physicians hastily responded. Professor Mills in a statement declares it his belief that a plot existed to murder him.

TO POLE BY AEROPLANE.

Shackleton Will Have Sledges Drawn by Airship.

London.—The keenest interest is felt in the news that Sir Ernest H. Shackleton, who already has written his name indelibly on the antarctic roll of fame, is about to lead another British expedition to the south pole. The main object of the expedition will be to cross the antarctic continent from sea to sea, making the south pole the halfway house on the great journey and thus at one stroke recover for Britain the prestige and place in polar exploration that were hers till four years ago.

This will be the biggest polar journey yet attempted and will open up in the Weddell quadrant a vast unexplored region which is still blank on the map. It is notable that no attempt to reach the south pole has yet been made from Weddell sea, the point of departure for the new expedition, all other journeys having been made from Ross sea, on the other side.

The distance from sea to sea that will be covered is roughly 1,700 statute miles, of which more than one-half will be over an entirely new route.

BABE BY PARCEL POST.

Mother Ships Infant to Its Grandmother, Then Takes a Train.

Lebanon, O.—"I want to send this babe by parcel post," said Mrs. Ed Rudabaugh as she entered the post-office here.

The postmaster pinched himself to see whether or not he was dreaming, and when he realized he was awake he said, "Well, let's weigh it!" The babe was weighed, stamped, and a tag was tied around its neck.

Then the child was placed with the other "mail" to await delivery. A rural route mail carrier later delivered the "package" at the home of Mrs. Rudabaugh's mother, who lives several miles from this city.

Mrs. Rudabaugh said she wanted to go to Cincinnati and did not have time to take her babe to its grandmother's, so she allowed Uncle Sam to deliver it for her.

Tonight—The Great American Eclair Feature

From the Beyond

In 3 sensational parts, featuring Barbara Tennant, Alec Francis, A. C. Lund, J. W. Johnston Fred Trusdale, Julia Stuart and Wm. Sherrer. In one scene in this picture it took 5 exposures to complete it. It is one continual thrill from start to finish, and was produced at a great expense and difficulty. It brings the great Hindoo mystery of Life and death out so clearly that it is easily understood. Don't miss this one
